These students were selected for different roles as candidates for Youth Parliament.

The Student Council then created a special whatsapp group for all the candidates and shared various documents which provided basic understanding, functioning, rules and procedures of the NYPS with the candidates.

Training to the Candidates

In the training sessions the candidates were explained about Do's and Don'ts in the Youth Parliament which was shared by the Ministry to the college.

All the candidates were given a week's time to know, understand the Parliamentary procedures, rules, and its functions. The candidates were advised to watch real Parliament sessions, so that they get a brief understanding about the functioning of the Parliament. The candidates were also advised to watch the youtube recordings of National Youth Parliaments and sample videos provided by the Ministry were also shared. The candidates were also taught about the proper dressing for the Youth Parliament.

After this process from 21.11.2022 and 24.11.2022, online & offline training sessions were held under the guidance of Teacher-in-Charge, Prof Vinita Sharma. In the training session the candidates were provided with a detailed script of the event. The candidates also got special training on usage of "Parliamentary Language"

The candidates were taught about the procedures of the list of businesses which were going to be taken up in the NYP, and a proper script which was approved by the Teacher-in-Charge was provided. They were also taught how to speak and articulate in the Parliament.

Mock sessions

Mock sessions for the Candidates were conducted on 24.11.2022 & 25.11.2022 for the under the supervision of the Teacher-in-Charge & IQAC Coordinator. The mistakes which were made by the candidates were identified and proper corrections were made.

Preparing for the Youth Parliament

After the mock sessions, the candidates were confident about their performance for the main Youth Parliament.

The Student Council made ample preparations for the main Youth Parliament on 26.11.2022. The college invited Shri. Konda Vishweshwar Reddy, Ex- MP, Chevella, R.R. District, to be Chief Guest for Youth Parliament.

A youtube link of the main event was created and was shared with the candidates, staff, and other audience members. A meeting was also held on 25.11.2022 called by the Principal, which reviewed the preparedness for the event. In the meeting the proposal for planting a sapling in the honour of Chief Guest which would be named as "NYPS TREE" was approved unanimously. The Student Council was appreciated by the meeting for Successfully organizing the training and mock sessions for the Candidates.
